

Please do NOT do anything to weaken Indian's law on the "NO CALL" list. It is so disruptive and takes so much family time away in the evening when the phone rings constantly with unwanted solicitations. Generally, the people making the phone calls will not take NO for an answer. After a possible stressful day at work the last thing someone needs when they get home is harrassing phone calls.